SECOND OPINION NETWORK

Strengthening Interpersonal Connections and Enriching Perspectives

At OpinioNet, our core mission is to support families living separately due to work, facilitate communication within families, and enhance communication between these families and institutions.

Our network is an open-source framework to maintain social contacts and activities, meet new people, and encourage the exchange of fresh ideas.

We stand out with a transdisciplinary approach to experts from more than 30 professions in an international context, offering a unique concept of communication.

Target Audience:

Our subscribers are:

- Families whose members live apart for business reasons.

Package Details:

We offer four subscription packages:

- Package S (monthly): Designed for those who are unsure, as a kind of test, access to all information and activities is enabled. It is impossible to use the Campus format, which is held quarterly. It is not possible to use identity protection and other benefits.
- Package M (quarterly): Ideal for those who want to try everything before the final order. It is possible to use identity protection and some of the benefits of unlimited use.
- Package L (annual): Adapted to people who need regular and frequent communication and socializing. Includes use of all benefits.
- Package XL (unique): It is intended for companies, associations, institutions, and communities that contract subscription for their employees, members, users, patients or citizens.

- It provides access to specialized services with demanding payment conditions, and
  - our innovative identity protection allows subscribers to communicate anonymously.

Events and Activities:

Jour-Fixe:

Virtual events for groups of around 20 people with shared interests are held monthly. Each subscriber can choose and use one Jour-Fix event in their initial subscription, with an upgrade option.

Lectures:

They are regularly held virtually. Free participation for subscribers in at least one weekly online class. Priority access to live lectures is included, although live lectures may have separate fees.

Campus-Lounge:

Regularly held virtual meetings, free for subscribers, with live meetings on-demand.

All activities and events empower subscribers in two areas: modern health and active aging, and each area has five core categories covering a range of topics.

How OpinioNet Works:

- Administrative communication with subscribers is facilitated through the opinion-net.com website.
- Subscribers can express their interests and preferred format for receiving information.
- Regular and active participation is possible in Jour-Fix and Campus Lounge, while active interaction during live lectures occurs occasionally.

- The OpinioNet team administers and manages the infrastructure, coordinates associates in searching, checking, and processing information, and negotiates with experts.
- The team also creates clear, relevant and subscriber-friendly content, including opinions, tips and reviews, in a variety of formats.
